

PUBLIC HEALTH

R E P O R T S

FEATURES

MERCURY

Methylmercury: A New Look at the Risks 396

KATHRYN R. MAHAFFEY

COMMENTARY

A Real Plan of Action on Mercury 416

MICHAEL T. BENDER, JANE M. WILLIAMS

WORKFORCE REGULATION

VIEWPOINT

Strengthening the Links between the Public Health Community and Health Professions Regulation 421

CATHERINE DOWER, LEONARD FINOCCHIO

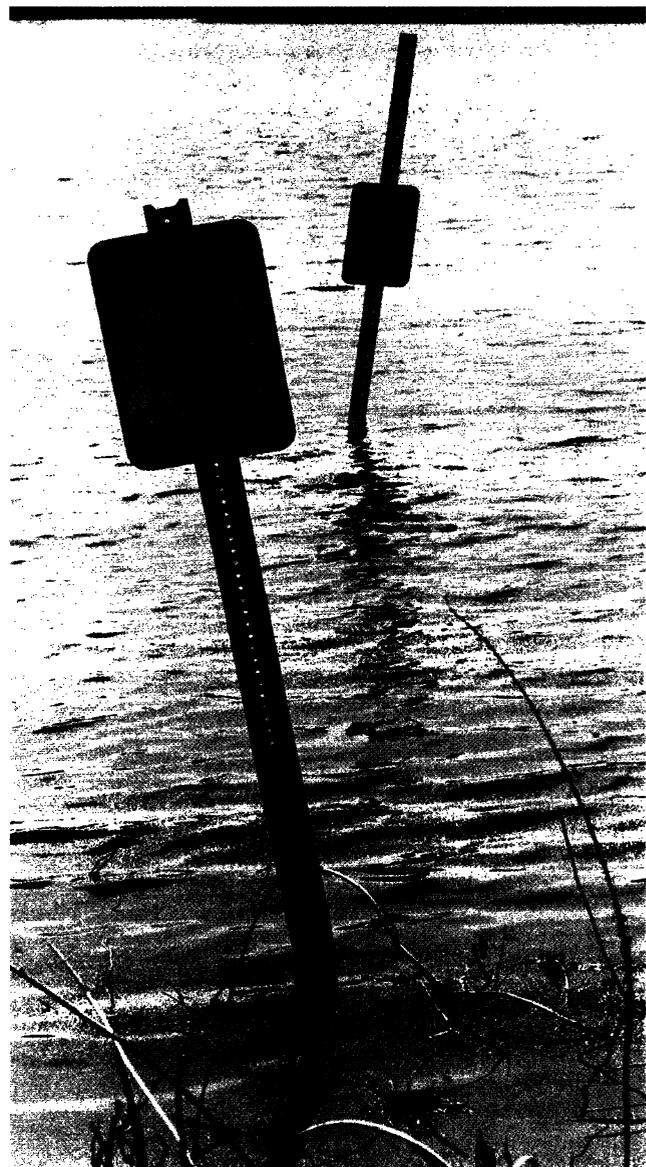

COVER PHOTO:

When parents and grandparents succumb to a child's plea for just another quarter for one more video game, how much attention do they pay to the messages that game sends to a young mind? In his column, Dr. David Satcher refers to psychiatrist David Grossman's observation that some movies and video games use the same desensitizing techniques that are used to train recruits for war. See "Unlearning Violence" on p. 478-479. ■

KARL BADEN

KARL BADEN

DEPARTMENTS

Editorial	391
Letters	392
News & Notes	393
Public Health Service	478
Association of Schools of Public Health	480
Writing for PHR	484

PUBLIC HEALTH

REPORTS

RESEARCH ARTICLES

Cyclosporin Associated with Imported Raspberries, Florida, 1996. 427

DOLORES KATZ, SAVITA KUMAR, JEAN MALECKI, ET AL.

The Impact of a Needle Exchange's Closure. 439

ROBERT S. BROADHEAD, YAËL VAN HULST, ET AL.

Racial Discrimination and Alcohol-Related Behavior in Urban Transit Operators: Findings from the San Francisco Muni Health and Safety Study. 448

IRENE H. YEN, DAVID R. RAGLAND, ET AL.

PRACTICE ARTICLES

Implementation of EPA's Worker Protection Standard Training for Agricultural Laborers: An Evaluation Using North Carolina Data 459

THOMAS A. ARCURY, SARA A. QUANDT, ET AL.

A Comprehensive Refugee Health Screening Program 469

JAMES KENNEDY, DEBORAH J. SEYMOUR, ET AL.

IN UPCOMING ISSUES

Premature Mortality from Ischemic Heart Disease

ELIZABETH BARNETT, PHD

A study of rural vs urban and black vs white disparities

Alcohol-Related Injury Surveillance and Prevention Program

GEORGE W. WAGNER, MD MPH

A collaborative approach pays off

Welfare Reform

ELLEN LAWTON, JD

Health care access post-"reform": a Massachusetts case study

